RE: Gift to Official

ADVISORY OPINION #179

SUMMARY

179. An official's acceptance of payments by a lobbyist or lobbyist principal to defray the costs of a conference is a gift and is prohibited under Minn. Stat. § 10A.071.

FACTS

As a public official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 18, and, therefore, an official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1 (c), you ask the Ethical Practices Board for an advisory opinion based upon your statement of the following facts:

1. As an official you will sometimes attend a conference in another state conducted by a national organization.
2. You are a member of a nonprofit association of government officials from around the United States which holds regular conferences.
3. Typically your expenses for travel, meals, and registration for these conferences would be paid for your agency or from other resources available to you that are not paid by a lobbyist or a lobbyist principal.
4. The costs of some of the conferences to which you refer may, in part, be underwritten by corporate sponsors, some of whom may be lobbyist principals as defined in Minn. Stat. Ch. 10A.
5. The conferences to which you refer are attended by a great number of people, from around the nation, most of whom would not be an official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1(c).

QUESTION ONE

If the costs of a conference conducted by a national association are underwritten by a lobbyist or a lobbyist principal, as defined in Minn. Stat. Ch. 10A, would an official be prohibited from attending such a conference unless that official pays the actual cost of the conference attributable of that individual's participation in the conference?

OPINION

Yes. Donations from a lobbyist or a lobbyist principal that pay in whole or in part the cost of travel, meals, and registration fees are not within any exception to the gift prohibition in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071.

QUESTION TWO

If the answer to Question One is, in general, yes, does the exception in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 3(b)(1), apply, since this gift would be given because of the recipient's membership in a group, a majority of whose members are not officials, and an equivalent gift is given to the other members of the group?

OPINION

No. The acceptance by an official of a gift in the form of payments by a lobbyist or lobbyist principal to defray the costs of a conference is not within any exception to the gift prohibition in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071.
