RE: Information Directory Distribution

ADVISORY OPINION #205

SUMMARY

205. The Minnesota Information & Referral Alliance, a membership association which is neither a lobbyist principal nor a lobbyist as defined in Minn. Stat. Ch. 10A may distribute to legislators copies of its directory. Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 3 (a)(2) and (6).

FACTS

As the president of the Minnesota Information & Referral Alliance ("MIRA"), you ask the Board for an advisory opinion based on your statement of the following facts and information provided:

1. MIRA is an membership association established to provide access to comprehensive, professional information and referral services for Minnesotans that compiles an annual directory of information and referral services.
2. MIRA's directory provides information about social services, human resources, emergency services throughout the state grouped by subject matter, geographical location, and alphabetically by agency.
3. MIRA is funded by membership dues paid by individual members and member organizations, by grants from municipalities and corporations, some of whom are lobbyist principals; however, MIRA is not a lobbyist principal, and no lobbyist is registered to represent MIRA.
4. MIRA prepares the text of its annual directory in camera ready form using time and resources of member associations and provides the text to a corporation that is a lobbyist principal for printing free of charge and distribution throughout the state through sale of the directory at $20 per copy.

5. MIRA plans to prepare additional copies of the camera-ready text of its annual directory using MIRA's membership dues money for distribution free of charge to state legislators to assist the legislators in providing information to their constituents.

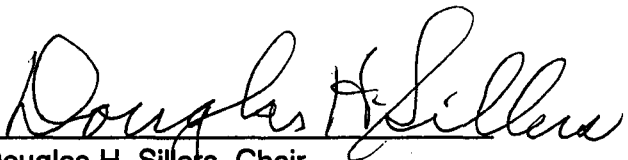

QUESTION

May MIRA provide specially-prepared copies of its information and referral directory, paid from MIRA funds, to state legislators free of charge?

OPINION

Yes. The distribution to legislators of the information and referral directory of MIRA, a membership association which is neither a lobbyist principal nor a lobbyist as defined in Minn. Stat. Ch. 10A is not prohibited. Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 3 (a)(2) and (6).
