RE: Gift to Official

ADVISORY OPINION #206

SUMMARY

206. An official is prohibited from accepting a gift from a lobbyist principal in the form of complimentary transportation, and the lobbyist principal is prohibited from providing the gift. Minn. Stat. § 10A.071. If travel is necessary to perform official duties, payment of the expenses should be available from resources appropriated to the entity in which the official serves or other entities charged with responsibilities related to the event.

FACTS

As counsel to a public official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 18 (b), and, therefore, an official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1 (c), you ask the Ethical Practices Board for an advisory opinion based upon your statement of the following facts and information provided:

1. The official will be accompanying a lobbyist principal on a trip to promote business for the state.
2. The lobbyist principal has offered to provide or pay for the official's transportation.
3. It is your understanding that promoting business for the state is an activity that is expected of the official.

QUESTION ONE

May the official accept transportation services provided by a lobbyist principal that are offered to facilitate the official promoting and recruiting business for the state?

OPINION

No. An official is prohibited from accepting a gift from a lobbyist or a lobbyist principal; the lobbyist or lobbyist principal is prohibited from giving a gift to an official. If travel with a lobbyist principal is necessary to perform official duties, payment of the expenses should be available from resources appropriated to the entity in which the official serves or other entities charged with responsibilities related to the event.

QUESTION THREE

Can the official's spouse accept the lobbyist principal's offer of free transportation on the trip?

OPINION

Gifts to spouses of officials as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1(c), from lobbyists or lobbyist principals are not addressed in Minn. Stat. Ch. 10A.

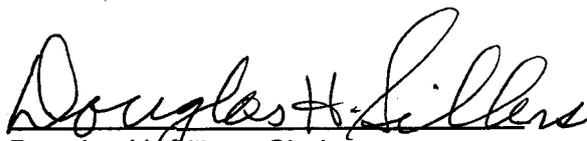

QUESTION FOUR

What is the definition of "official duties" for the purposes of Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 3(2)?

OPINION

Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 3(2) does not define official duties.

Subd. 28. Principal. "Principal" means an individual or association that:

- (1) spends more than $500 in the aggregate in any calendar year to engage a lobbyist, compensate a lobbyist, or authorize the expenditure of money by a lobbyist; or
- (2) is not included in clause (1) and spends a total of at least $50,000 in any calendar year on efforts to influence legislative action, administrative action, or the official action of governmental units, as described in section 10A.04, subdivision 6.

Minn. Stat. § 10A.071 CERTAIN GIFTS BY LOBBYISTS AND PRINCIPALS PROHIBITED provides:

Subdivision 1. Definitions. (a) The definitions in this subdivision apply to this section.

(b) "Gift" means money, real or personal property, a service, a loan, a forbearance or forgiveness of indebtedness, or a promise of future employment, that is given and received without the giver receiving consideration of equal or greater value in return.

(c) "Official" means a public official, an employee of the legislature, or a local official of a metropolitan governmental unit.

Subd. 2. Prohibition. A lobbyist or principal may not give a gift or request another to give a gift to an official. An official may not accept a gift from a lobbyist or principal.

Subd. 3. Exceptions. (a) The prohibitions in this sections do not apply if the gift is:

- (1) a contribution as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 7;
- (2) services to assist an official in the performance of official duties, including by not limited to providing advice, consultation, information, and communication in connection with legislation, and services to constituents;
- (3) services of insignificant monetary value;
- (4) a plaque or similar memento recognizing individual services in a field of specialty or to a charitable cause;
- (5) a trinket or memento of insignificant value;
- (6) informational material of unexceptional value; or
- (7) food or a beverage given at a reception, meal, or meeting away from the recipient's place of work by an organization before whom the recipient appears to make a speech or answer questions as part of a program.

(b) The prohibitions in this section do not apply if the gift is given:

- (1) because of the recipient's membership in a group, a majority of whose members are not officials, and an equivalent gift is given to the other members of the group; or
- (2) by a lobbyist or principal who is a member of the family of the recipient, unless the gift is given on behalf of someone who is not a member of that family.
